

REALITY CHECK PROGRAM
Summary Results of Quantitative Analysis
Conducted by: Brevard Community College – Community Involvement Honors

Reality Check Programs are consistently monitored for success after six months of service delivery. The most recent program evaluation conducted by Brevard Community College showed results as follows:

- 90% of youth receiving Reality Check Program services had not been arrested
- 70% of children receiving Reality Check Program services showed improvement in their overall attitudes
- 43% of children receiving Reality Check Program services had improved school grades
- 31% of children receiving Reality Check Program services had improved school attendance